Joke of the week

Q:What did the cheese say when he looked in the mirror?

A:Halloo—me!!!

In Monday's Assembly

We Looked at equality and diversity and realised how equality is very different to treating everyone the same. If someone doesn't need something (like money to the rich) you give it to people who need it more (like giving your money to the poor if you are rich). That is equality.

We Raised £170.00 for Jeans For Genes Day!!! A huge amount of money!

THANK YOU EVERYONE!!!
