Remembrance Day

11.11.2022

Opening

Today we remember all the brave men and women who have fought in wars all over the world. We want everyone to try and live in peace so that all the children in all the different countries are safe like us.

We gather together today, to remember those lost to wars but also to ask for peace.

To ask for conflict, war and suffering to end. We gather together in the hope we can spread peace.

In the church the month of November is a month of remembrance.

Remembrance Day is on the 11th of November every year.

The Cenotaph

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun
and in the morning,
We will remember them.

In Flanders Fields

Please leave the hall silently.
